

SOCIETY

by Miss Hagman, Mrs. Groves and Mr. Foster.

Judge and Mrs. Miner have returned from the east.

Miss Emily Miller has gone to Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reid have moved to 530 South Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sherman entertained Mr. Edward Power of Pittsburgh during the past week.

Mrs. B. F. Bauer has gone east.

Mrs. H. H. Robinson of Rockford, Ore., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. W. Chisholm.

The Misses Clark left Tuesday for an eastern visit.

Mrs. N. A. Ransohoff gave a very pretty luncheon Thursday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Wertheimer of De Lamar.

Mr. and Mrs. Lichtenstein have returned from the east.

Miss Emma Harris of Virginia is the guest of Miss Anna Perkins.

Miss Josephine Wells entertained at a candy pull Friday evening at her home.

which was performed by Chief Justice Bartel.

Mr. and Mrs. Leaver left yesterday for Central America, where they will make their home.

Informal Affairs.

Mrs. Nelson A. Empey entertained on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Rachel Grant. The guests were: Mrs. Martha Wells, Mrs. Zina D. Young, Mrs. Hannah Wells, Mrs. Susan Wells, Mrs. H. P. Richards, Mrs. L. A. Wells.

Pleasant Surprises.

Mr. Joseph Burbridge was surprised by a number of his friends on Monday evening. The early hours were passed with cards and music, and later an elaborate supper was served. Present were Mr. and Mrs. William Burbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Burbridge, Mr. and Mrs. John Burbridge, Mr. and Mrs. George Burbridge, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Peck, Miss Mabel Webb, Miss Pritchard, Miss Staples, Miss Smythe, Miss Varley, Miss Holding, Miss Parry, Miss Billings, Miss Britton, Miss Sarah Smith, Miss McKay, Mr. Charles Williams, Mr. Woodruff, Mr. Pike, Mr. Guiver, Mr. Parry and Mr. Varley.

Dinner Party.

A number of prominent business men gave a dinner at the Alta club last evening. The table was set in the private dining room, and was attractively decorated in roses and carnations. Present were Mayor Clark, Mr. E. R. Edwidge, Mr. B. P. Ellerbe, Mr. C. W. Strevell, Mr. F. T. Geary, Mr. George A. Snow, Mr. F. B. Stephens, Mr. P. W. Madson, Mr. H. S. Hill, Mr. George T. Odell, Mr. A. H. Erickson, Mr. C. A. Singler, Mr. T. G. Webber and Mr. Winder.

Y. M. C. A. Reception.

The "Whites" reception at the Y. M. C. A. was a roaring success last evening. The room was tastefully decorated in white. The programme was a novelty, it being an "old-time" school commencement day, with solos, recitations, instrumental duets, etc., among which special attention might be made of the solo by Mrs. Plummer and two numbers by the Arlon club, under the direction of D. Horton. Refreshments were served, and the evening ended with an "old-time" spelling match, in which everybody participated.

Cards and Music.

A pleasant evening was spent at Mrs. Bassett's home, 654 East Second South street. Cards and music were the features of the evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Bassett, Miss Grace Freese, Miss Marian Brown, Miss Ruthie Sadler, Mrs. Engstrom, Mr. Brodie and Mr. Faversham.

Engagement Announced.

Dr. J. S. Taylor announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Jessie Taylor, to Mr. Ray Simpson. The wedding will take place in the near future.

Card Party.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murphy entertained at their home on West Sixth South street. The evening was pleasantly passed with cards, refreshments and dancing. Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Strout, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Killeen, Miss Dottie Gordon, Miss Leslie Larsen, Miss Jean Gordon, Mr. L. C. Peeble and Mr. Otto Wells.

Candy Pull.

On Monday evening the Misses Nettie and Lottie Griggs were the hostesses of a candy pull. Among the guests were Miss Mary Jones, Miss Lillian Gamble, Miss Pearl Peck, Miss Ashton, Miss Burton, Miss Griggs, Miss Ure, Miss Burnham, the Misses Griggs, Mr. Joseph, Mr. Elsie Johnson, Mr. Sidney Elder, Mr. Roy Kallgren, Mr. Wolf and Mr. Percy McKimmins.

St. Mark's Hospital Ball.

A meeting was held at the Knutsford building last evening to arrange for the annual charity ball in aid of St. Mark's hospital. It was decided that the ball be given April 6, at Christensen's hall. The meeting adjourned to meet on Wednesday at 2:30 a. m. when all interested are invited to attend.

Oak Leaf Club.

A new social club was organized during the week, called the Oak Leaf Club. The members are Miss Mable Ledingham, Miss Cecelia Sharp, Miss Edna Williams, Mr. John Baker, Mr. Ray Guiver, Mr. Joseph Taylor, Mr. Harry Johnson, Mr. William Green, Mr. Cantlan.

At Dinner.

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Hughes entertained at dinner last Monday. The guests were Judge and Mrs. O. W. Powers, Miss Mackintosh, Richard Mackintosh and Mr. Hayward.

Wedding Reception.

A very pretty wedding reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Oakley, 515 South State street, last Thursday evening, in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss W. J. Rieve, to the ceremony having taken place in the temple the same day.

An elaborate supper was served, the table being arranged in the form of a U and tastefully decorated with American beauty roses, carnations and ferns. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rieve, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Higgs, Mrs. Gertrude Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. A. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Hickey, the Misses Reeves, Miss Maude Paul, Miss Eva Symons, Miss Nellie Howarth, Miss Connie McAllister, Miss Lila Shedd, Miss Ada Poll, Mr. and Mrs. Chase, the Misses Evans, Messrs. Verne Reed, George Badley, W. J. Sloan.

The bride is one of Salt Lake's accomplished and talented daughters, while the groom is a bright and rising young business man of this city, being one of the principal stockholders of the Utah Lithographing company. Songs, music and toasts formed a pleasant part of the evening's entertainment.

Social Notes.

Mrs. Styer, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Wilkes, left Wednesday for Buffalo.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry A. Mayo of De Lamar will spend the next few weeks in the city.

Mrs. C. L. Road is in Butte.

Miss Birdie Pease was surprised by a number of friends Thursday evening. Cards were enjoyed, prizes being won.

Theatre Party.

Mrs. Shaughnessy gave a box party at the Grand on Wednesday afternoon. The guests were: Mrs. John Groesbeck, Mrs. Frank Beattie, Mrs. Theresa Werner, Mrs. Ellis Smith.

Yearsley-Leaver.

The marriage of Miss Wanchet Yearsley and Mr. E. Leaver took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Yearsley. The relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued during the past week to the following: Hans Ole, Salt Lake, to Mrs. E. Helene Kinsden, Salt Lake; William F. Booth, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; William Erickson, East Jordan, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; James L. Leach, Sandy, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Rose E. Ward, Sandy, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Asa E. Sigelov, Payson, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; William J. Reavey, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Edmund S. Leavitt, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Wanchet Yearsley, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; James Hopeworth, Woods Cross, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Lester Francis, Corn, N. Y., to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Amy Decker, Sherman, N. Y., to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Hiram R. Knapp, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Thurin C. Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Joseph C. Miller, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Nolia Montgomery, Fort Douglas, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Gus Rahl, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Elias Rahl, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Chetie A. Barker, Taylorsville, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy.

OGDEN SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.) Ogden, March 11.—On Tuesday La Coterie was entertained by Mrs. Perkins in her home on Adams avenue.

Mrs. Wenner opened the programme with personal reminiscences of the Black Forest, supplemented with pictures gathered on her travels.

Among other dainty bits of revelry was a peasant wedding in a little rough whitewashed church, with smoke-blackened rafters and brick floor.

With pink cheeks and tightly-braided hair, held fast to the frightened groom as they marched up the aisle in their wooden shoes.

The "burden mother" waddled to the altar with a red cotton handkerchief, which she presented to the priest for his fee.

The time-honored custom of running a race to decide which should hold supremacy in the household was won by the brave groom.

The ball given in honor of the bride and groom was a success, and a lantern was sometimes used to locate a partner.

Another item of interest was the Black Forest wood carving, great, ungainly blocks of wood and the most beautiful shape, under the skilled hands of trained workmen.

Mrs. L. B. Adams' conscientious consideration of "Heine" was another charming feature of the afternoon's entertainment.

A card bearing an inscription from Goethe, exactly fitting the dainty bread, and tied thereto with ribbon, was a pretty feature of the luncheon, and created a lively and instructive conversation.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Valentine Gideon, 2333 Quincy avenue.

The "Twentieth Century Philomaths" met at the home of E. Kinsden, near the Forum, on the seventh day before the ideas of March. After the traditional business session, and articles each favored the society with a weighty thesis.

The problems of the day were discussed at some length, and the evening closed with a song, serving a characteristic feast. After some music the meeting adjourned to convene at the home of Anaxagoras the tenth day before the kalends of April.

The Thursday Night club met this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Conner on Washington avenue.

The guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dermody, Misses Drake and Woodcock.

The talk cards were miniature drama, and the counters small stars. The prizes were won by Mayor Boyle and Mrs. Dermody.

The club is to meet this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cross.

On March 7 the Agila had an unusually pleasant meeting, with Mrs. E. C. Grant as hostess.

The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. George Snow of Salt Lake City, Mrs. S. E. Anderson and Mrs. Fortier.

Mrs. Grant was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by her daughter, Florence, and little Miss Snow of Salt Lake.

Mrs. Snow favored the club with two charming vocal selections. After much persuasion Mrs. Grant sang a comic Dutch song, which created no end of merriment.

Mr. Joshua Grant, Jr., performed several good selections on the piano.

The hour for business opened with a splendid report from the critic, Mrs. Conner, who made many suggestions for needed improvement.

A paper entitled "Has Literature Declined?" was given by Mrs. Conner, who proved from an optimistic point of view that literature is not deteriorating, but rather enjoying a healthy growth, widening onward and upward toward its golden zenith.

The paper bespoke for Mrs. Conner a brilliant future, and a wealth of general information on ancient and modern writers.

The club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Metcalf at the school for the deaf.

Mrs. Roy is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Davis.

Tuesday evening Mr. Ed Hinchcliffe, assisted by his sister, entertained at cards. The guests were Miss Olive Kinsden, Mabel, Miss M. O. Ensign, Miss Minnie Brown, Miss Lizzie Ballantyne, Miss Ruth Blair, Miss Maud Evans, Miss Lillian Brinham, Miss Charles Brown, Miss Bantyne, W. Jackson, W. Ferrin, C. Myers, Len Browning.

Mrs. Eccles recently entertained the Child Culture Club at her home, 230 Jefferson avenue, Friday, March 10. Mrs. Hilliard made a very able presiding officer, in the absence of the president and vice president.

The club will contribute its share to the traveling library, and each member will also furnish one or more volumes to help all the cause. After the business of the club was concluded, Professor P. R. Christensen gave a very instructive talk on the Sumer method of teaching arithmetic. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Farr, Thirty-second street and Adams avenue, Friday, March 24.

The Dewey club enjoyed an evening with Mrs. Gosberg Monday.

The Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W. will give a card party in their hall Wednesday.

Master Eddie Livingston entertained a number of his young friends Monday evening.

The management of the Union Opera House gave a ball Thursday evening.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Democratic club of the Second ward Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in room 426 of the Constitution building. The following is the programme:

Song by Mrs. Lizzie Thomas Edward, recitation by Miss June Mathis, topics of the day by Mrs. Morris Sommer.

The Cleofan.

Last Tuesday's session of the Cleofan was devoted to the study of "Maebeth."

Mrs. Taylor gave an interesting account of the historical sources of the play. Mrs. Hinch read some selected portions of the play, and Mrs. Lee acted as instructor.

Mrs. Cora Eldridge gave current events, closing with reading "Burdard Kinsden."

Discussion then followed upon events in Manilla, and in view of a recently published letter of Major Young, in which he stated that the batteries' fund was nearly depleted, it was decided to send $25 to Major Young immediately, for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers of the batteries A and B, and to further supplement this present sum it was decided to give in the near future an entertainment for the purpose of raising the fund.

The programme for the entertainment has not been entirely decided on, but Lieutenant Grow and Scott Wells will tell some of the sights and experiences of Manilla.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued during the past week to the following:

Hans Ole, Salt Lake, to Mrs. E. Helene Kinsden, Salt Lake; William F. Booth, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; William Erickson, East Jordan, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; James L. Leach, Sandy, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Rose E. Ward, Sandy, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Asa E. Sigelov, Payson, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; William J. Reavey, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Edmund S. Leavitt, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Wanchet Yearsley, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; James Hopeworth, Woods Cross, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Lester Francis, Corn, N. Y., to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Amy Decker, Sherman, N. Y., to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Hiram R. Knapp, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Thurin C. Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Joseph C. Miller, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Nolia Montgomery, Fort Douglas, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Gus Rahl, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Elias Rahl, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Chetie A. Barker, Taylorsville, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy.

OGDEN SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.) Ogden, March 11.—On Tuesday La Coterie was entertained by Mrs. Perkins in her home on Adams avenue.

Mrs. Wenner opened the programme with personal reminiscences of the Black Forest, supplemented with pictures gathered on her travels.

Among other dainty bits of revelry was a peasant wedding in a little rough whitewashed church, with smoke-blackened rafters and brick floor.

With pink cheeks and tightly-braided hair, held fast to the frightened groom as they marched up the aisle in their wooden shoes.

The "burden mother" waddled to the altar with a red cotton handkerchief, which she presented to the priest for his fee.

The time-honored custom of running a race to decide which should hold supremacy in the household was won by the brave groom.

The ball given in honor of the bride and groom was a success, and a lantern was sometimes used to locate a partner.

Another item of interest was the Black Forest wood carving, great, ungainly blocks of wood and the most beautiful shape, under the skilled hands of trained workmen.

Mrs. L. B. Adams' conscientious consideration of "Heine" was another charming feature of the afternoon's entertainment.

A card bearing an inscription from Goethe, exactly fitting the dainty bread, and tied thereto with ribbon, was a pretty feature of the luncheon, and created a lively and instructive conversation.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Valentine Gideon, 2333 Quincy avenue.

The "Twentieth Century Philomaths" met at the home of E. Kinsden, near the Forum, on the seventh day before the ideas of March. After the traditional business session, and articles each favored the society with a weighty thesis.

The problems of the day were discussed at some length, and the evening closed with a song, serving a characteristic feast. After some music the meeting adjourned to convene at the home of Anaxagoras the tenth day before the kalends of April.

The Thursday Night club met this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Conner on Washington avenue.

The guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dermody, Misses Drake and Woodcock.

The talk cards were miniature drama, and the counters small stars. The prizes were won by Mayor Boyle and Mrs. Dermody.

The club is to meet this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cross.

On March 7 the Agila had an unusually pleasant meeting, with Mrs. E. C. Grant as hostess.

The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. George Snow of Salt Lake City, Mrs. S. E. Anderson and Mrs. Fortier.

Mrs. Grant was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by her daughter, Florence, and little Miss Snow of Salt Lake.

Mrs. Snow favored the club with two charming vocal selections. After much persuasion Mrs. Grant sang a comic Dutch song, which created no end of merriment.

Mr. Joshua Grant, Jr., performed several good selections on the piano.

The hour for business opened with a splendid report from the critic, Mrs. Conner, who made many suggestions for needed improvement.

A paper entitled "Has Literature Declined?" was given by Mrs. Conner, who proved from an optimistic point of view that literature is not deteriorating, but rather enjoying a healthy growth, widening onward and upward toward its golden zenith.

The paper bespoke for Mrs. Conner a brilliant future, and a wealth of general information on ancient and modern writers.

The club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Metcalf at the school for the deaf.

Mrs. Roy is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Davis.

Tuesday evening Mr. Ed Hinchcliffe, assisted by his sister, entertained at cards. The guests were Miss Olive Kinsden, Mabel, Miss M. O. Ensign, Miss Minnie Brown, Miss Lizzie Ballantyne, Miss Ruth Blair, Miss Maud Evans, Miss Lillian Brinham, Miss Charles Brown, Miss Bantyne, W. Jackson, W. Ferrin, C. Myers, Len Browning.

Mrs. Eccles recently entertained the Child Culture Club at her home, 230 Jefferson avenue, Friday, March 10. Mrs. Hilliard made a very able presiding officer, in the absence of the president and vice president.

The club will contribute its share to the traveling library, and each member will also furnish one or more volumes to help all the cause. After the business of the club was concluded, Professor P. R. Christensen gave a very instructive talk on the Sumer method of teaching arithmetic. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Farr, Thirty-second street and Adams avenue, Friday, March 24.

The Dewey club enjoyed an evening with Mrs. Gosberg Monday.

The Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W. will give a card party in their hall Wednesday.

Master Eddie Livingston entertained a number of his young friends Monday evening.

The management of the Union Opera House gave a ball Thursday evening.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Democratic club of the Second ward Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in room 426 of the Constitution building. The following is the programme:

Song by Mrs. Lizzie Thomas Edward, recitation by Miss June Mathis, topics of the day by Mrs. Morris Sommer.

The Cleofan.

Last Tuesday's session of the Cleofan was devoted to the study of "Maebeth."

Mrs. Taylor gave an interesting account of the historical sources of the play. Mrs. Hinch read some selected portions of the play, and Mrs. Lee acted as instructor.

Mrs. Cora Eldridge gave current events, closing with reading "Burdard Kinsden."

Discussion then followed upon events in Manilla, and in view of a recently published letter of Major Young, in which he stated that the batteries' fund was nearly depleted, it was decided to send $25 to Major Young immediately, for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers of the batteries A and B, and to further supplement this present sum it was decided to give in the near future an entertainment for the purpose of raising the fund.

The programme for the entertainment has not been entirely decided on, but Lieutenant Grow and Scott Wells will tell some of the sights and experiences of Manilla.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued during the past week to the following:

Hans Ole, Salt Lake, to Mrs. E. Helene Kinsden, Salt Lake; William F. Booth, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; William Erickson, East Jordan, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; James L. Leach, Sandy, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Rose E. Ward, Sandy, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Asa E. Sigelov, Payson, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; William J. Reavey, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Edmund S. Leavitt, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Wanchet Yearsley, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; James Hopeworth, Woods Cross, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Lester Francis, Corn, N. Y., to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Amy Decker, Sherman, N. Y., to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Hiram R. Knapp, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Thurin C. Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Joseph C. Miller, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Nolia Montgomery, Fort Douglas, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Gus Rahl, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Elias Rahl, Salt Lake, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy; Chetie A. Barker, Taylorsville, to Mrs. Clara L. Leach, Sandy.

OGDEN SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.) Ogden, March 11.—On Tuesday La Coterie was entertained by Mrs. Perkins in her home on Adams avenue.

Mrs. Wenner opened the programme with personal reminiscences of the Black Forest, supplemented with pictures gathered on her travels.

Among other dainty bits of revelry was a peasant wedding in a little rough whitewashed church, with smoke-blackened rafters and brick floor.

With pink cheeks and tightly-braided hair, held fast to the frightened groom as they marched up the aisle in their wooden shoes.

The "burden mother" waddled to the altar with a red cotton handkerchief, which she presented to the priest for his fee.

The time-honored custom of running a race to decide which should hold supremacy in the household was won by the brave groom.

The ball given in honor of the bride and groom was a success, and a lantern was sometimes used to locate a partner.

Another item of interest was the Black Forest wood carving, great, ungainly blocks of wood and the most beautiful shape, under the skilled hands of trained workmen.

Mrs. L. B. Adams' conscientious consideration of "Heine" was another charming feature of the afternoon's entertainment.

A card bearing an inscription from Goethe, exactly fitting the dainty bread, and tied thereto with ribbon, was a pretty feature of the luncheon, and created a lively and instructive conversation.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Valentine Gideon, 2333 Quincy avenue.

The "Twentieth Century Philomaths" met at the home of E. Kinsden, near the Forum, on the seventh day before the ideas of March. After the traditional business session, and articles each favored the society with a weighty thesis.

The problems of the day were discussed at some length, and the evening closed with a song, serving a characteristic feast. After some music the meeting adjourned to convene at the home of Anaxagoras the tenth day before the kalends of April.

The Thursday Night club met this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Conner on Washington avenue.

The guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dermody, Misses Drake and Woodcock.

The talk cards were miniature drama, and the counters small stars. The prizes were won by Mayor Boyle and Mrs. Dermody.

The club is to meet this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cross.

On March 7 the Agila had an unusually pleasant meeting, with Mrs. E. C. Grant as hostess.

The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. George Snow of Salt Lake City, Mrs. S. E. Anderson and Mrs. Fortier.

Mrs. Grant was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by her daughter, Florence, and little Miss Snow of Salt Lake.

Mrs. Snow favored the club with two charming vocal selections. After much persuasion Mrs. Grant sang a comic Dutch song, which created no end of merriment.

Mr. Joshua Grant, Jr., performed several good selections on the piano.

The hour for business opened with a splendid report from the critic, Mrs. Conner, who made many suggestions for needed improvement.